Tribute

Mrs Rowena Jones was a teacher at Penmorfa for 30 years, before retiring in 1995 and would have taught a lot of our current grandparents/parents. Mrs Jones played a big part in raising the profile of Penmorfa and both her and her husband Les were very well known around Prestatyn for their involvement within the community. Les passed away just a few months ago. Rowena has now sadly passed away too and we would like to pay tribute to them both for their work with the school and wider community. The funeral will take place at 11:30am on 24th January at Nant Hall Church. The family have said everyone who would like to attend will be very welcome.
